

JULIAN CROATTO - GITARRIST

Born in Montevideo, Uruguay, the guitarist is currently working mainly in Berlin, Germany.

He obtained the title of "Master of Music" at the Hochschule für Musik "Hanns Eisler" in Berlin, in the guitar class of Prof. Dr. Daniel Göritz.

In Uruguay he obtains the Bachelor degree of Licenciado en Interpretación Musical from the Universidad de la República.

In and out of the academy he has been guided by Daniel Göritz, Alvaro Pierri, Eduardo Fernández, Mario Payssé, Mauro Marasco, Ramiro Agriel, Pablo Rilla, Miguel Marozzi, Graciela Paraskevaídís and Leo Maslíah, among others.

Member of the Núcleo Música Nueva de Montevideo, Ensemble ilinx – Studio for Contemporary Music at Berlin University of the Arts, Ensemble Simón Bolívar of Venezuelan music, Dúo Garufa, INALTU – Latin American music collective and Horas Pares – canto criollo, among other groups active in Montevideo and Berlin since 2008. He has performed in concert in Germany, Argentina, Austria, Brazil, Ecuador, Spain, Italy, Puerto Rico and Uruguay.

Projects and collaborations

The music is based on dialogue and exchange. Julián is involved in several musical projects based in Berlin and Montevideo. He is interested in collaborations with experimental sound artists, visual artists, performers and other artists.

Further information at <https://juliancroatto.com/index.php/en/home/>